REPRESENTATIONS OF MESSRS. AMIR ALI KHAN, TIRUVENKATAPPA AND RAMAPRASAD.

Summary of representation.	Remarks.	Orders of Government.
Election to the Representative Assembly and Legislative Council should be annual.	Not possible on account of expense. Continuity is desirable which cannot be secured if the Representative Assembly and the Legislative Council change from year to year.
Every person paying assessment of Rs.25 to be given the privilege of standing as a candidate.	According to the decision of Government the qualifications of candidates are the same as those of voters in respect of the Representative Assembly. And the payment of an assessment of Rs.25 qualifies a person to be a voter and therefore to be a candidate. In respect of the Legislative Council, the voters have the same qualifications as voters to the Representative Assembly. But the property qualifications of the candidate are deliberately fixed twice as high. No change is ~~therefore~~ called for.
A candidate once elected should not be eligible for a second election.	There is no such restriction and the restriction is not desirable.
The member or members (of the Representative Assembly) elected for a taluk should hold a meeting of all the voters and ascertain their wants and desires.	This is not necessary and is inconvenient and expensive.
